

Angelignite

Brand new love has hurled my soul,
Into a deep blue cosmic sea,
Feeling closer now,
To what I always, wanted love to be.

Am I sailing, stellar sailing,
Or am I falling across the heavens,
Like the moon around the earth,
And the earth into the sun.

The story is one of two linked hearts,
Humming softly to each other,
Sands of time can't keep them apart,
He is my lover, my soul saviour.

Am I sailing, stellar sailing,
Or am I falling across the heavens,
Like the moon around the earth,
And the earth into the sun.

Feel the fire and the spirit,
In our molecular attraction,
Not even the world can dispel,
We are soaring in this, nuclear perfection.

Am I sailing, stellar sailing
Or am I falling across the heavens,
Like the moon around the earth,
And the earth into the sun.
