

Sleepless

There's a voice in my head,
Never stops talking,
Nothing ever changes,
I can't get any sleep,
Broken rhythms don't mend,
I wait for everything to end,
I lie awake in bed,
In some forgotten dream,

(instrumental)

It could mean all or nothing,
I can't explain anything,
Things I'd like to remember,
Things I try to forget,
Thoughts don't stop turning,
I don't know where I'm going,

(Over the instrumental break)
I can't control my impulses
I can't control my impulses
I can't control my impulses
I can't control my impulses
I can't control my impulses
I can't control my impulses
I can't control my impulses

I'm too tired for conversation,
I can't explain anything,
Nights painted in colours,
Stream doubts and questions,
In some forgotten dream,
I crave the grace of sleep,
I crave the grace of sleep,
I crave the grace of sleep.
